1. Career Path

I received my bachelor and Ph.D. degrees from the School of Environment at Tsinghua University, Beijing, and was working at Yale School of Forestry and Environmental Studies during 2010-2015. I joined the Institute of Urban Environment (IUE), Chinese Academy of Sciences (CAS), in 2015.

2. Research

Leading a research group on Resources and Urban Sustainability at the IUE, CAS, my research focuses on the (1) urban metabolism and urban complexity; (2) anthropogenic cycles and trade of resources, especially metals and plastics; and (3) environmental big data.

3. Professional Activities

I was elected to the board of the International Society for Industrial Ecology in 2018, and was the founding president of the Chinese Society for Industrial Ecology built in 2015. I am now serving as associate editor for the journals Resources, Conservation, and Recycling and Journal of Industrial Ecology.
